Wrangell and Douglas Play Basketball

There was a gratifying interest in the basketball game between Wrangell and Douglas Monday night, the hall being packed with local enthusiasts. The maroon and white of the Wrangell team was prominently displayed by the high school pupils, and the local players were given much encouragement by their fellow students, who, led by Harold Shangle, gaily arrayed, sang and yelled and cheered whenever the occasion warranted it. The Douglas yell was not missing either. It was known that the visitors were a formidable foe with a record of many victories, and everyone was anxious to see what the Wrangell High would do in the first inter-school game ever held here.

A preliminary game was played between two grade teams, the Wild Cats consisting of M. Loftus, J. Prescott, U. Kanervo, Hiltz, Tucker and Worden, and the All-Stars consisting of Lee, L. Engstrom, J. Wheeler, H. Bradley and G. Case. It was a snappy game that afforded much merriment and showed that Wrangell will not run out of basketball material for some time. The final score was: All Stars 10; Wild Cats 2.

The line-up for the big game was:

H. Gallwas	F. F. Gunderson
A. Nelson	F. H. Ronning
S. Brown	C. G. Gunderson
Capt. Gallwas	G. N. Grant
W. Manley	G. J. Coulter
A. Garn	Sub. S. Schelp

The Douglas team made a fine showing when they entered the hall and their strength and speed was apparent at once. The home team was cheered by their loyal friends, but there was an air of tense expectancy through the hall. The home boys made a valiant fight, but before the first half was over, it was felt that they could not win. The team work of the visitors was exceptionally fine, and they had an uncanny way of making baskets from any angle that rolled up the score in a manner that insured victory. The score was 17 to 6 in the first half. Wrangell doubled their score in the second but Douglas did even better than that, and the victory stood 38 to 12. Osborn was substituted for Schelp in the last part of the second half. Ronning, the captain of the home boys, was not well enough to play and many felt that his absence weakened the team considerably. The Wrangell boys lost smilingly to players that have won games from better teams and showed good feeling through it all. Their opponents were fine fellows who took their victory modestly. The referees were G. C. Mitchell and Fred Lewis.

Contests such as this are a fine thing between schools, and teach lessons of good sportsmanship that cannot be learned in any other way. When a team learns to lose gamely after a clean, fair fight, or to win a victory without assuming a boastful attitude, it has learned a valuable lesson that can be applied to any one of the games of life. Hospitality of the right sort is also learned and a feeling springs up between schools and the towns they represent that make for healthy competition.

The Wrangell High school team were hosts to the visiting team and their manager, Mr. Mitchell, the faculty, and the members of the school board, at a banquet held at the Den o' Sweets after the game. Covers were laid for 24. The place cards bore an ingenious arrangement of the names that removed all formality and the occasion was a very happy one. Short talks were made by Mr. Mitchell, the captains of both teams, Martin Gallwas and Henry Ronning, and the members of the school board. Miss Rees gave a recitation and Miss Lillian Kelly sang. Both teams gathered around the piano later and sang popular songs for a short time after which they repaired to the hall for the dancing which had followed the game. In the talks that were given at the banquet, the best of good fellowship and mutual regard was expressed and it was hoped that some declamatory and debating contests can be arranged at some time between the schools on the channel and Wrangell. A girls' basketball game was also mentioned. Douglas has one which has played three games against Juneau, winning one of these.

The Douglas visitors have won the following games on the Channel: In three games with Juneau the scores have been 56 to 12, 21 to 19, and 69 to 13; against Thane where three of the players were college men, the score was 25 to 13; at Fort Seward, 70 to 2, and against the All Stars of Juneau, a mixed team of Thane and Juneau men, the score was 36 to 22. On this showing it is felt that the home boys did very well, considering the fact that they have never played a visiting team before.

C. A. Carlson, coach and manager for the Wrangell team, has submitted the following financial statement:

Door receipts, game and dance	$128.25
DISBURSEMENTS
Guarantee to visitors	$70.00
Banquet	13.50
Hall rent	20.00
Music	13.00
Printing	5.00
	121.50
Balance in treasury	$6.75

Douglas Plays the Legion

A very large crowd witnessed the basketball game last night between Douglas High and the American Legion, and enthusiasm ran high. Another scrappy game between the Wild Cats and the All Stars of the school served as a curtain raiser and delighted those present. The Wild Cats won, 10 to 8.

The principal game was a lively one and very disastrous to the home team from the first. The good team work and the speed of the visitors ran the score up to 26 against 8 for the Legion in the first half. The home team did much better work in the second and the game ended with a score of 34 to 25. Ed Lynch was substituted for F. Lewis in this half and Sinclair Brown of the visiting team, who had considerable trouble with his knee, gave way to A. Garn at the end of the game. The line-up was:

H. Gallwas	F. C. Lewis
A. Nelson	F. F. Lewis
C. Brown	C. G. Sylvester
Capt. Gallwas	G. Chas. Moore
W. Manley	G. H. Coulter
A. Garn	Sub. Ed Lynch

December 29, 1920.

The Douglas High School basketball team appreciates very much the fine spirit of the Wrangell High School and wishes to thank both the High School and the American Legion for the many courtesies extended to our team during our stay in Wrangell. If you visit Gastineau Channel towns it will be a pleasure to meet you again.

Christmasy in all its appointments was the "At Home" given for Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus by Miss Rees and Miss Swanson last Thursday evening. The room which had been arranged for games was banked with green and "Merry Christmas" in white and green lettering welcomed the guests as they entered. A beautiful tree, lighted and glittering, occupied one room and here Mr. and Mrs. Santa held court and dispensed the gifts. No one was forgotten, not even Lucullus, a tiny kitten wearing a huge red bow in honor of the occasion. A third room contained seven tables with runners of red against which the feathery green of the cedar, the white place cards with the names in a tracery of red and green, topped by lighted candles, and the dainty refreshments presented a most attractive appearance. The room was festooned with the holiday colors from corner to corner, the streamers caught high above the center table where Mr. and Mrs. Santa presided over the feast. This ruddy, jovial couple was the center of attraction throughout the entire evening and the shouts of laughter and the delight of the guests testified to the success of the occasion. The hours for the fifth, sixth and seventh grades were from six to eight and for the eighth and High school grades from nine to eleven.

There was a special meeting of the Executive Committee of the Red Cross on Tuesday evening to take up the bills incurred for the nursing course and other accumulated business. A report of the cost of the course will be published later. Letters of appreciation for the success of the Red Cross Drive held recently and for the kindness shown Miss Holland were read. They were from the Division Headquarters. It was reported that all of the Wrangell women who took the nursing course examinations received marks of 90 and over on their papers.

Mrs. Wm. Tamaree who went to Petersburg on the Seattle returned on Wednesday without having been able to get any dental work done, the Petersburg dentist being out of town. It is a serious matter to develop a toothache in this part of Alaska.

Weekly Budget Of Happenings About Town

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Peterson at Astoria, Oregon, on December 3, a son.

M. O. Johnson made a trip to Duncan Canal on the Uniluco this week.

Mrs. Wm. Tamaree went to Petersburg Monday morning for dental work.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lindman are now en route home from McMinnville, Oregon.

Mrs. P. C. McCormack and son Peter, went to Juneau early Monday morning on the Seattle.

Bishop Crimont arrived in Wrangell on the Seattle yesterday. He will be here over New Year.

The Uniluco went out to the Towers camp on Duncan Canal Monday noon with mail and supplies.

The Arctic Brotherhood will give a social affair Wednesday evening, January 5. It will be invitational.

Wm. Paul came up from Ketchikan on a small boat Christmas Eve. While in the First City, Mr. Paul made a two day visit to Metlakatla.

The theme of the sermon at St. Philip's church, January 2, at 7:30 p. m. will be "The Solution of World Problems and of Home Problems Is One and the same."

The Princess Pat came in from the West Coast Tuesday morning having weathered one of the stormiest trips of its existence. It sought anchorage three times on the way from Craig.

Mrs. Nora Reed who has been spending several months with F. B. Leonard and family left on the City of Seattle for Anacortes, Wash., where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Fred Jarbo. Mrs. Jarbo was formerly Mrs. Dolly Walton of Wrangell.

Miss Holland returned from Bayview and Klawock Tuesday morning. She reported having started a nursing class at the former place under the leadership of the local nurse, and having personally given a few lessons in home nursing at Klawock. Miss Holland saw three Christmas celebrations at one of which it required three hours to distribute the gifts.

A band of carol singers, preceded by a cross bearer, left the schoolhouse at 4:30 last Friday afternoon and sang Christmas carols along Front, Church and Cassiar Streets. The beautiful white cross was hung with a green wreath and had a tiny light at the top. The singers found that the people of the town had entered into the spirit of the occasion and had placed lighted candles in nearly all of the windows along the line of march. The beautiful music of the familiar carols rang out on the clear, cold air and was enjoyed by all.

Toby Harthun is in Wrangell again after an absence of several months during which he travelled thousands of miles. He zig-zagged as far to the westward as Unimak Pass. From Cordova he went "Inside," and later, visited Yukon Territory going as far north as the Arctic circle.

The following young men from the Douglas High School arrived on the Jefferson Christmas Day for the inter-scholastic basketball game with Wrangell: Martin Galwas, Harold Galwas, Arthur Nelson, Abbie Garn, William Manley, Sinclair Brown, Arthur A. Garn, Richard McCormick and Emil Palmborn. They were accompanied by G. C. Mitchell, former instructor in the Wrangell schools, who is now Superintendent of the Douglas schools. Mr. Mitchell is also coach and manager for the basketball team.

An unusually large congregation enjoyed the impressive midnight choral service at St. Philip's Church Christmas Eve. Special music was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Towers and Mr. C. A. Carlson. There was a short address by Rev. Corser followed by the communion service and a vested choir of girls and boys led in the singing of the Christmas hymns. On Sunday evening a song service was given. The special numbers were "O Holy Night" by Mrs. Towers, Millard's "Ave Maria" by Mrs. McLaughlin and a duet by Mrs. M. O. Johnson and Mr. Carlson. "The Lesson of Christmas," a short address prepared and delivered by Mrs. Towers was an inspiration to those present. The vested choir took part in this service also.

Captain Jinks favored the basketball boys with a solo that was hugely enjoyed by those who were at the dance given at the Rink Monday evening. Many of those present had never had the opportunity of hearing Chinese singing before and appreciated the vocal efforts of our Oriental merchant immensely. Captain Jinks mounted a stool where he could tower above his audience and when the series of sounds which were undoubtedly perfectly good singing in Chinese, ceased, he was given such vociferous applause that he graciously accorded his delighted listeners another song, even more elaborate than the first. Then he laughingly bowed his thanks and went back to his business.

Dr. L. P. Dawes of Juneau arrived in Wrangell on the City of Seattle yesterday, and since his arrival has been busy shaking hands with his numerous Wrangell friends. He will leave tonight for his home in Juneau.

Attention is directed to the professional card of Dr. Roy A. Dawes, dentist, of Seattle. Dr. Roy Dawes is a brother of Dr. L. P. Dawes of the Dawes hospital. Dr. Roy Dawes is a graduate of the Chicago dental college. Since locating in Seattle he has built up considerable practice.

Richard McCormick and Emil Palmborn who came down from Douglas with the basketball boys and stopped over here for the game with Wrangell High, left for Seattle Wednesday.

Work on Shrimp Cannery Begins Next Week

The shrimp cannery project for Wrangell is to be a reality according to a cablegram received by Mayor Grant this week from Tom Heckman in which he states that a 120 foot scow with all equipment will arrive here next week to begin work.

Messrs. Tom Heckman and George Brown of Ketchikan, the promoters, appeared before a special meeting of the town council recently and submitted their proposition. As a bonus they wanted the town to provide a float from which they could conduct operations. The council voted to expend $250 for this purpose, the remaining amount necessary to be raised by subscription. Heckman & Brown have announced they would subscribe $50 themselves.

The float will be located off Shakes' point. Charles Darwell did the first work yesterday, driving the dolphins to which the float will be attached. The float will be a permanent improvement which will also be for the benefit of all fishermen.

According to Messrs. Heckman and Brown the shrimp canning project for Wrangell is a sound business proposition that will not fail of success. It will give employment to between 30 and 40 people from the start.

Mrs. Wm. Tamaree returned on the City of Seattle from a short visit to Petersburg.

Eleven dollars have been received from the West Coast by the Red Cross Drive committee since the last report, making a total of $239.

C. W. Hawkworth of the U. S. Bureau of Education arrived in Wrangell Tuesday en route to Juneau. Mr. Hawkworth had been visiting schools on the West Coast.

The Princess Pat is making a special trip to Juneau this week. G. C. Mitchell and his basketball team, Mr. Hawkworth and Dr. Dawes were passengers for the North.

Staff-Captain Jaynes of Ketchikan was a passenger to Juneau on the City of Seattle Monday. On his return he stopped off at Wrangell, and will go from here to Bayview to look after the work of the Salvation Army at that place.

The Sisters and Brothers Society will have some unique attractions on New Year's night at their hall at the foot of Front Street. At eight o'clock sharp a number of the Sisters and Brothers will march in a masqued parade from their hall to the hotel and return, and immediately upon their return the festivities will begin. Two old men and an old woman who have never been in Wrangell before will be on hand and perform some uncanny tricks. Some of the Sisters and Brothers will also get into the limelight and do a few things bordering on legerdemain. (Small admission.)

Neuralgic Pains

Give Way to Soothing Hamlin's Wizard Oil

Hamlin's Wizard Oil is a safe, simple and effective treatment for both headache and neuralgia. Rubbed in where the pain is, it eases the tortured nerves and almost invariably brings quick relief. Keep a supply on hand.

Wizard Oil is a good dependable preparation to have in the medicine chest for first aid when the doctor may be far away. Its healing, antiseptic qualities can always be relied upon as a preventive against infection, or other serious results, from sprains, bruises, cuts, burns, bites and stings. Just as good, too, for sore feet, stiff neck, frost bites, cold sores and canker sores.

Generous size bottle 25c. If you are troubled with constipation or sick headache try Hamlin's Wizard Liver Whips. Just pleasant little pink pills at druggists for 50c.

Most Famous of Thrones.

The peacock throne formed part of the interior decoration of a costly building in Delhi, the ancient capital of the Mogul empire in India. The throne had the figures of two peacocks standing behind it, their tails expanded and the whole so inlaid with sapphires, rubies, emeralds, pearls and other precious stones as to represent real peacock plumage. The throne, valued at several million dollars, was carried off by invading armies and now figures in a palace in Persia.

Every "hep-hep" of the boy scout marks the advance thread of a real man.

Patience, boys. Did you ever note how the old team seems to know when Dad takes hold of the lines?

On the school-house, yes. And you might even hoist Old Glory above the potato-field.

Think of a food-shortage when the only happy people will be the dyspeptics!

Pretty good kind of aristocracy, after all, that dug up crocuses to plant the potatoes.

Remember, life's record is always written with an indelible pencil. Hence so many obscuring blots.

Always try to transplant young sprouts into better soil. Your young life is one of them.

It were not seemly to think you're "the only man in the world"—but try to think you know one mighty good one.

Nature gave the hawk speed to strike the dove—but you'll be doing nothing unnatural to shoot the hawk.—J. H. Mackley in Ohio Farmer.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Nobody swatted the fly.

Nobody had seen a silo.

Nobody had appendicitis.

Nobody wore white shoes.

Nobody wore a wrist watch.

Nobody sprayed the orchards.

Most young men owed livery bills.

Farmers came to town for their mail.

Nobody "listened in" on the telephone.

The hired girl drew one-fifty a week and was happy.

The butcher "threw in" a piece of liver.

And the safety razor had not harvested the alfalfa from the face of the farmer.

DON'T YOU REMEMBER

The kindly medico who gave his nag a lump of sugar before coming into the house?

The venerable Aesculapian who always had spots on the front of his Prince Albert?

The extraordinary medico who commented on each symptom, saying, "That doesn't worry me?"—Journal of the American Medical Association.

REMARKS

The only standing army that really looks good to us is the Salvation army.

The world does not change much. You will still find a girl almost anywhere who says she wouldn't marry a certain man if he were the last man on earth, but if you hang around awhile you will find that she will marry him, just the same.

The country is dry legally, but it is wet every other way.

Maybe it is because the kaiser has no lawyer that he can't be hauled out of Holland and jugged in London tower.

We are indeed a strange people. And one way we take to fool ourselves is to turn the clock back to save daylight.

BITS OF ENGLISH LAW

The English infant is not exempt from income tax.

A medical man who uses a motor-car may claim an allowance for depreciation.

No penalty can be exacted by the government after the expiration of three years.

The penalty for a false declaration is a fine not exceeding $100 and treble duty.

A man earning $800 and his fiancée possessing a private income of $800 a year pays no tax, but when they marry the man will have to include his wife's income with his own and pay the tax accordingly.

RAW FURS WANTED

Alliance, Neb.,
July 16, 1920.

Weil Bros. & Co.,
Fort Wayne, Indiana.
Gentlemen: It may surprise you to know that the 100 rats that I shipped you, and for which you paid me $200.00 that these rats were shipped to one of the most prominent fur houses in the United States at Chicago, and they offered 50 cents a piece for them. They were ordered to be returned, and were returned to Nebraska. I thought it was right to tell you this, because where one firm pays 300 per cent more for an article than another firm in the same line of business—and that firm claiming to be one of the largest in the United States—you are quite right in calling yourselves THE OLD SQUARE DEAL FUR HOUSE of Fort Wayne, as you certainly do give a square deal. I have not only received a square deal on this shipment but on a great many other shipments.

If anyone doubts this statement they can write to me for confirmation, enclosing postage, and I will affirm it.

With my kindest personal regards, I remain

Yours truly,

HARVEY MYERS,

P. O. Box 410, Alliance, Neb.

Bank of Alaska

Wrangell, Alaska

April 28, 1920.

A. M. White Company,
Juneau, Alaska.

Dear Sirs:

Referring to your letter of the 21st inst., it is true that we shipped about $30,000.00 furs through the bank to Weil Bros. this season.

The principal reason we shipped this amount to them was because they handled our business satisfactorily and paid a fair price for the goods.

We did receive a Weil circular and you deserve credit for this. However, we shipped to several other houses which did not mail us any advertising matter. The reason Weil got the big end of our business was because he treated us right.

Yours very truly,
G. W. UPSHAW,
Vice-President.

(This is a reproduction of a letter to our advertising agent in Alaska.)

The proof of the pudding is in the eating. The above letters are the proof that we pay more for your furs.

The oldest Fur House in existence in the United States. Fifty years under the same management.

Any bank will tell you that we are good. Write for prices—or, better still, ship your furs to us now.

Holiday Greetings

The Seattle P.-I. raised a large sum of money for the purpose of bringing Christmas cheer to the kiddies of Seattle—those that were born without silver spoons in their mouths. For two or three weeks before Christmas a column was devoted each day to reporting donations received and telling what would happen to certain Seattle highbrows if they didn't respond. This column was run under the heading: "Running 'em Ragged." In one of last week's P.-I.s. we found in the "Running 'em Ragged" column the following note from a well known citizen of Wrangell:

Wrangell, Alaska,
December 15.
Editor Running 'em Ragged:
Say, you've got the best line of blackmail I ever heard of, so I'm slipping you five checkers for the kids, so in case you ever hear of me I'll be safe from your vitriolic pen.

E. F. Grigwire.

Hans Sorensen and H. Hanson arrived from Ketchikan this morning to repair the Standard Oil dock.

The Wilson partition, received for the school recently, is being installed in the new addition this week and will separate the Junior High School class room from the Manual Training. It consists of doors that fold so that the room can be thrown into one when necessary and has one communicating door. Even if basement space is secured at some future time for the manual training, it will be necessary to have the addition divided in this way for two class rooms.

Practical prizes for the masquerade which will be given New Year's Eve are being exhibited and range from a sack of flour to a pair of socks.

Wrangell merchants report a fairly good business during the holidays. Some days showed the sales to be about half of what they were last year at the same time but other days were better than that, and on the whole, there is little complaining.

The first hickory-nuts the Sentinel man has ever seen in Alaska were received last week by Miss Hazel Rees, a teacher in the Wrangell public school. The hickory nuts are from Miss Rees' father's farm in Indiana and were among the good things Miss Rees received from her far-away home for Christmas.

THE CAPITAL'S NEW EDITOR

The Sentinel is pleased to join with the press of the North in welcoming into the ranks of journalism in Alaska a newcomer in the person of E. E. Beard, the new editor of the Juneau Capital.

Mr. Beard is not a stranger to the publisher of the Sentinel, and he doubtless has other acquaintances among the Alaskan publishers. He is an experienced newspaper man, who has been in the publishing business the greater part of his life. While publishing the Columbian at Vancouver, Wash., Mr. Beard had occasion to write a few "scorchers" defying would-be muzzlers of the press.

In recognition of his ability as a publisher and a journalist he was elected president of the Washington State Editorial Association. His work in Alaska will doubtless be marked by the same success that attended his efforts in the States.

School Notes

The total enrollment for the year is 144.

The average daily attendance for the past month was 126.67.

Superintendent L. D. Henderson sent the school the Otis and the Haggerty intelligence tests which were given to the pupils during the past week. The purpose of these tests is the measurement of native mental ability, instead of the achievements of the school children.

Mr. F. E. Bronson has presented the school with two valuable books entitled, "Theodore Roosevelt's Letters to His Children" and "Talks With T. R." by John J. Leary, Jr. Mr. Bronson's motive to inspire the children with the ideals of Roosevelt is greatly appreciated by the school.

Following is the program of the assembly exercises held on December 24:

Hymns on the chimes
Duet—Christmas Chimes—Richards, Mrs. Towers and Mr. Carlson
Responsive carol—Miss Connor's room and upper grades
Scripture verse—Andrew Engstrom
Carol—Hark! The Herald Angels Sing
Scripture verse—Helen Hofstad
Carol—It Came upon the Midnight Clear
March and song by Miss O'Connor's children
Soldiers chorus from Faust—school
Chimes for Recessional.

Through the kindness of Mr. Donald Sinclair all of the children were treated to apples and oranges. The school wishes to publicly thank Mr. Sinclair for his generosity.

About 23 children enjoyed a Christmas party at the Government school last Friday afternoon. The school room had been cleared for games and a pretty tree, trimmed by the children during the week, was the big attraction. A taffy-pull furnished amusement for some time. Pop-corn balls, candy and fruit were served. Mr. Sinclair contributed oranges and apples for the party, a gift that was very much appreciated.

Miss Marie Gagnon, Miss Maye Coombs and Miss Nell Hille arrived on the Princess Pat Tuesday from Hyaburg to spend their Christmas vacation in Wrangell.

Found—A way to save money by buying Pearl Oil and Lubricating oils at the St. Michael Trading company dock.

The Christmas program of St. Philip's Church school was held on the evening of Christmas Day at the gym. There was a play in which a boy was tried for disproving of Santa Claus. Those taking part were: Herbert Bradley as the Judge, Wilfred Gartley as clerk of the court; Raymond Wheeler, attorney; David Davis, prisoner; Kendall Northrope, captain of Boy Scouts; James Wheeler, Santa Claus; Boy Scouts, George Rowley, Henry Bradley, William Lewis, Albert Binkley, Warren Gartley, Billie Northrope and Valentine Gartley; five jury women, Nellie Rowley, Edna Bidwell, Erma Grant and Dorothy and Marjorie Johnson. There were recitations by Juanita Lewis and the girls of the primary class, a solo by Theodosia Royalty, recitations by the Boy Scouts and a song by the jury women. Christmas carols were sung by the entire school. Later, gifts and candy were distributed.

A very good program of songs and recitations was given at the Presbyterian Church Christmas Eve by the Sunday school pupils. Mr. John Ludwig presided. The school sang several Christmas songs and there was a solo by Nellie Rhinehart. The girls of the Primary class and the boys' class gave exercises. Recitations were rendered by the following: Einar Otteson, Frederick Paul, Lester and Clifford Bjorge, Melvin Hall, Beatrice Palmer, Nellie Prescott, Dorothy Shepard, Juanita Rhinehart, Emma and Margaret Shakes, Lottie Blake, Winfred Tozier, Carl Palmer, Richard Borch, William Paul, Albert Ronning, Chad Wyatt, Sidney Tozier, Harold Otteson, Etolin Coulter, Margaret Otteson, Glen Matheson, Irene Tozier, Nettie Prescott, Gladys Tamaree, Virginia Tozier and Catherine Matheson. The story of "The Other Wise Man" was given by Mrs. Wm. L. Paul. Candy and fruit was distributed to all and the pupils of the Sunday school received gifts.
